Just thinking, what you see on TV is not all you need to know.

When North Korea launched three missiles into the Sea of Japan it was headline news for four days.

300 projectiles landed in Israel and it gets barely a whisper in our media.

Arson fires ravaged Israeli towns. Did you hear this reported?

I recently attended a South Shore presidential synagogue meeting in Sharon. 13 presidents spoke about issues facing them, yesterday, today, and tomorrow. Their biggest issue was how to fund themselves moving forward. Each president told of their widely varied take on the subject. Some tried lowering dues, some allow pay what you feel, and others had variations on a theme. I came home and went to work on our budget. It quickly became clear that no dues structure would cover our expenses, not even close. We would need over 200 full dues paying members to break even.

With that in mind I’m suggesting the following for your consideration.

We will no longer charge dues; we only request a membership fee. You are being invited to join a group of like-minded Jewish community members to share in Jewish practices and observances, as often as you choose. Just know that you are a member of our community and we are there.

Once dues, or membership, is paid, or your payment arrangements have been made, all other expenses are gone. This will include but not be limited to meals, trips, cookouts, tours, etc. Come and enjoy the rights that come with membership.

With this new funding plan in mind, I am asking for suggestions for ways you would like to see your membership funds used. Would you like to go on a walking tour of Boston including Vilna Schul? A group trip to the Jewish Film Festival. This is your membership, your choice.

No suggestion is too small, although some MAY be too big!

Let me know what you think.

In June, we will be celebrating Shavuot, the second of the pilgrimage festivals. Shavuot is the holy day that has the least connection to the agricultural cycle (though it celebrates the barley harvest) and the strongest link to our religious/historical aspects. For it is on Shavuot that we celebrate and commemorate the receiving of the Torah at Mount Sinai. It is a Jewish understanding that it was not just the Israelites of that generation that stood at the foot of the mountain, heard the thunder and experienced the lightning, and then, heard the voice of God surround the community while stating the Ten Commandments. But it was all of us. We were all at Mount Sinai.

This Jewish understanding establishes a foundational belief that the Torah was not just accepted by the Israelites back then. It was not just them that stated, “We hear and we will do,” but all of us. The values, ethics and lifestyle rituals that are enumerated in the Torah are as incumbent upon us to accept as our Jewish core beliefs as it was for them. But each one of us heard something different at that mountain. Some heard a call for religious observance. Others for building community. Still others heard the call for social justice and ethical behavior. But what unites all of us is that we are all part of the covenantal community. As such, we each have an obligation to live out the Judaism that each one of us heard at Mount Sinai. Each one of us needs to be true to the responsibilities placed upon us by that thunderous voice. Each one of us has a role to play within the covenantal community in order for us to live up to our own individual potential as well as the communal potential that has yet to be realized.

What did you hear at Mount Sinai and how are you responding to the call?

Volunteer! Join Temple Beth Emunah’s Greater Boston Jewish Coalition for Literacy (GBJCL) team.

All you need is an hour a week, a warm heart and an eagerness to support students. Your donation of time and talents will help a child at the Arnone School improve their skills in literacy (and STEM), build confidence, and reach their learning goals. GBJCL volunteers work with students and teachers at the Arnone School each week (during the school day- 9am-3pm) from October through June. Anyone can volunteer, no prior experience is necessary. Training and ongoing support is provided by the Greater Boston Jewish Coalition for Literacy (GBJCL), a program of the Jewish Community Relations Council.

The Boston House

The family from Michigan was overjoyed to discover they didn’t have to bother with cooking supper. A short conversation revealed the extent of their stress. This is one reason we prepare a meal every month for the guests at Boston House in Brookline: to relieve one stressor of the many these families cope with. You can help us in our mitzvah by writing a check in any amount to the Temple and writing Boston House Dinner Fund on the memo line.

For our welcome spring supper we prepared chicken baked with Bourbon BBQ sauce, haricots verts (fine green beans), herbed rice pilaf, and for dessert: snickerdoodles, a yellow cake frosted with chocolate, and Nanaimo bars

Thank you to our donors and to our indefatigable baker, Reva.

Hope & Healing for Children with Cancer

The Boston House is now registering runners to join our New Balance Falmouth Road Race team. Since 1979, we’ve provided a home-away-from-home for children with cancer and their families. So much more than a place to stay, The House offers a respite from hospital life, comfortable home-like setting, and a community of support.

Every year in August, our staff, volunteers, and runners meet in Falmouth to enjoy the scenic 7-mile course and fundraise for The House, which so many have called “home.” We provide team jerseys and host a post-race cookout for all. It’s one of our favorite days of the year. Together, we can make life just a little bit easier for families as they face the life-changing realities of childhood cancer.
