It was Yom Kippur. A soldier managed to make it to Kol Nidre services just in time for it to start. But instead of pulling out a Machzor, he pulled a pack of playing cards out of his pocket and spread them out on the floor before him. This did not pass unnoticed. Both the Rabbi and the Gabbai saw this and became quite upset. The Gabbai requested that the soldier put the cards away immediately. The soldier refused and the Gabbai walked away quite upset with him.

After the services, the soldier walked up to the Rabbi who said, "Well soldier! What excuse could you have for your terrible behavior? Being Yom Kippur I will accept your apology immediately."

"Since you are such a highly respected and wise rabbi," replied the soldier, "I have to tell you that I have been on the march, nonstop for eight days now. Under the circumstances, I did not have the ability to bring my Tallit or my Machzor."

The soldier then took the pack of cards out of his pocket and showed the Ace of Spades to the Rabbi and continued to address him as follows:

"When I see an Ace it reminds me that there is only one God; and when I look at a Two, I see the two tablets of the Torah. When I see a Three, I see Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. A Four reminds me of Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel and Leah. A five reminds me of the Five Books of Moshe; and a Six reminds me that in six days God created heaven and earth. A Seven reminds me that on the seventh day God rested. An Eight reminds me of the eight people preserved from the destruction of the flood – Noah, his wife, three sons and their wives; and a Nine reminds of the time it takes to make a life. The Ten reminds me of the Ten Commandments that God gave Moshe on Mount Sinai. The Jack is Joseph and his great leadership ability to have saved Egypt from the famine. When I see a Queen, I see Queen Esther, who, with Mordecai, saved the Jewish people from annihilation. And when I see a King I think of how God is the King of the Universe."

The soldier then continued as follows: “When I count the number of dots in a pack of cards, there are 365, the number of days in a year. When I count how many cards are in a pack, I find there are 52, the number of weeks in a year. There are 12 picture cards in a pack, the number of months in a year. So, Rabbi, to me, this pack of cards is Torah, Almanac and Machzor, and it all fits in the palm of my hand.”

The Rabbi called the Gabbai over and asked him to make sure the soldier was well taken care of for the rest of Yom Kippur and for the break-fast.

May you have a year full of sustenance, prosperity and health. May this be a year of blessings and peace for us, for all of Israel and for all humanity. And may your praying be spiritually uplifting and your fasting be stress-free.

Volunteer! Join Temple Beth Emunah’s Greater Boston Jewish Coalition for Literacy (GBJCL) team.

All you need is an hour a week, a warm heart and an eagerness to support students. Your donation of time and talents will help a child at the Arnone School improve their skills in literacy (and STEM), build confidence, and reach their learning goals. GBJCL volunteers work with students and teachers at the Arnone School each week (during the school day- 9am-3pm) from October through June. Anyone can volunteer, no prior experience is necessary. Training and ongoing support is provided by the Greater Boston Jewish Coalition for Literacy (GBJCL), a program of the Jewish Community Relations Council. If you’d like to join or learn more, please contact Tina @ loseley@verizon.net

The Boston House

“Oh, that smells so good.” That was the comment of the Brookline building inspector as he made a tour of The Boston House. His colleagues from the Board of Health and Fire Dept. nodded in vigorous agreement. We hope The Boston House guests thought the same. For supper, we baked chicken, prepared an Italian vegetable medley, and cooked rice pilaf. For dessert there were maple cookies, orange cake, chocolate chip cookies, and a chocolate mousse cake.

Please feel free to make a dessert - we can arrange pickup, or to write a check in any amount to the Temple with The Boston house dinner fund on the memo line.

All of us wish you a very happy, healthy new year.
